

Valentine's Day at Hatch Family Chocolates

By, Rosann Greenway

Valentine's Day Disclaimer: Some folks don't relish the customs of Valentine's Day. My significant other is one of those people. He's come a long way in 14 years, albeit begrudgingly. Whether you hate February 14th or love it, you may find the following article valuable in some way. Thanks for reading!

With Valentine's Day right around the corner and one of the most popular Valentine's Day gifts being chocolate, we turn this neighbor spotlight to our neighbors across the canyon to the East, Steve Hatch and Katie Masterson at Hatch Family Chocolates. Hatch Family Chocolates is our local purveyor of hand-dipped, not machine processed, chocolates, confections and desserts.

As many know, the Hatch's began their business on E. Street and 4th Avenue, but have recently made the move to a much larger store and eatery with lots of greatly needed parking. The new location, at 376 8th Ave, provided the Hatch family with the opportunity to expand their business to be a unique chocolate shop as well as a dessert shop. Open until 10pm, patrons can sit and enjoy a great hot chocolate or gourmet coffee after a night out, or bring the family for ice cream sundaes. Keep in mind, the chocolate used to make Hatch's hot chocolate and syrup is not powder, but an irresistible blend of dark or milk chocolates.

Valentine's Day at Hatch Family Chocolates continued

By Rosann Greenway

Steve hopes that their eatery will be a gathering place for the community where people can sit and have fun! He believes the atmosphere they offer is a valuable commodity to the community, providing the chance to gather and unwind in a fabulous avenues setting.

I wondered if selling chocolates for Valentine's Day is different than selling chocolates for any other holiday. Steve said that it is the intent of the giver that makes a Valentine's Day gift special. He believes that showing expression of love or appreciation is a "great chance to give awareness to those you love!"

Thoughts from the Chair: February 2012

By Katherine Gardner

Have you noticed that the days are getting a little longer, not warmer yet; but longer means the tulips and crocuses will soon be picking up! Yeah!

If you have not had an opportunity yet to respond to our 2012 issues, please do. Your interest and concerns about our area is of great interest to us. Any of the trustees can give you a copy. We have some interesting challenges coming up according to our first responses.

This is the big month at our Utah Legislature. I hope all of you are watching; I know that our Good Friend at State Farm, Bob Fisher, is watching with great interest.

Washington School has several interesting events coming up. One is a Book Fair and another is a program with an auction and a bake sale. Look for more information somewhere in the Bulletin.

Our next meeting in February will be on the 15th at 6:30 pm and our March meeting will be on March 21, at 6:30 pm I look forward to seeing you there.
